

HKU x University College London

THE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

2 degrees - 4 years

HKU X University College London

Get a chance to study at the University College London (UCL), a renowned university in the UK and at HKU, one of the most sought-after universities in Asia, to earn separate Bachelor of Laws degrees from the two universities.

UCL ranked

9th
in the world
QS World University
Rankings 2026

Programmes

Year 1-2

At UCL, students are part of the LLB Bachelor of Laws programme of the university, which involves a compulsory extra-curricular placement at the UCL Centre for Access to Justice.

Year 3-4

At HKU, students are part of the LLB Bachelor of Laws programme of the university, and can enrol in a voluntary course, summer internship, or both in Mainland China.

Why HKU-UCL

- ★ Open doors to professional practice in two major common law jurisdictions; gain expertise in European Union law, and the civil law system in Mainland China.
- ★ Increase global awareness and gain new perspectives.
- ★ Learn and work with legal experts in the UK and Hong Kong.
- ★ Excel in the global professional practice environment.

Notable alumni of UCL

Joseph Fok

- Permanent Judge of the Hong Kong Court of Final Appeal

Mahatma Gandhi

- Indian lawyer and nationalist

Taslim Olawale Elias

- Former President of the International Court of Justice

HOW TO APPLY