1. After submitting an online application via the University’s online application system (https://admissions.hku.hk/tpg/programme-list-2223), applicants will receive a Faculty’s email and be requested to submit supporting documents in soft copies via the Faculty’s MArch Application Documents Submission System (https://extranet.ad.arch.hku.hk/Admission/MArch). Applicants will only be requested to submit hard copies of supporting documents when they receive admission offers from the Faculty. Please refer to page 2 of this document for further information about submitting supporting documents.

2. Applicants have to appoint two referees, preferably one previous teacher and one professional employer, via the University’s online application system (https://admissions.hku.hk/tpg/programme-list-2223). At least one academic reference is required.

3. To be eligible for admission to the Master of Architecture (MArch) programme in September 2022, a candidate:
   a) shall comply with the General Regulations and the Regulations for Taught Postgraduate Curricula;
   b) shall possess a Bachelor of Arts in Architectural Studies degree of this University; or another equivalent qualification from another university or comparable institution accepted for this purpose;
   c) for a candidate who is seeking admission on the basis of a qualification from a university or comparable institution outside Hong Kong of which the language of teaching and/or examination is not English, shall satisfy the University English language requirement applicable to high degrees as prescribed under General Regulation G2(b);
   d) shall satisfy the examiners in qualifying examination if required.

Preference will be given to applicants with professional experience that has shaped their practical and intellectual capacity in a positive manner.

2. The two-year professional Master of Architecture degree is accredited by the Hong Kong Institute of Architects (HKIA) and Architects Registration Board (ARB); validated by the Royal Institute of British Architects (RIBA); and via the Canberra Accord the programmes have substantial equivalency with the accreditation/validation systems of the Commonwealth Association of Architects (CAA), NAAB in USA, CACB-CCCA in Canada, NBAA in China, JABEE in Japan, KAAB in Korea, ANPADEH in Mexico, and SACAP in South Africa. For further information about the MArch programme, please visit https://www.arch.hku.hk/programmes/arch/master-of-architecture/

3. The curriculum extends over two years of full-time study offering courses on the following: advanced structural systems, architecture and its discourses, core design courses, design and construction communication, design and technology of sustainable buildings, pre-thesis seminar, professional practice I & II and electives. The main feature of the curriculum is to enable students to acquire a broad range of skills in related fields, providing opportunities for student to keep pace with topical issues and to develop flexibility and mobility of thinking, coupled with a greater degree of initiative, innovation and self-reliance. The other feature is to place greater emphasis on project work congruent with the essential features of architectural professional practice and to closely link formal teaching to practice.

19 October 2021
The following are some frequently asked questions raised by potential applicants:

I. What supporting documents do I need to submit?

I. After submitting the online application via the University’s online application system (https://aal.hku.hk/tpg/programme-list-2223), within one day, applicants will receive an email from the Faculty with login ID and password to access the Faculty’s MArch Application Documents Submission System (https://extranet.ad.arch.hku.hk/Admission/MArch). Please upload the below list of supporting documents to the MArch Application Documents Submission System by 12:00 noon (GMT+8), December 31, 2021. Please do not encrypt the supporting documents.

a) HKID copy (with watermark) for local applicants or passport copy for non-local applicants
b) Curriculum vitae (inclusive of publications and academic awards, if any)
c) Official transcripts
d) Graduation certificate (if any)
e) Test Report of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) (non-home edition), or International English Language Testing System (IELTS) (if you have not been studying in the university in which the courses are taught in English).
f) A portfolio with no more than 20 pages of creative work related in landscape orientation in PDF format. Proper credit and context must be given for all work related to author, collaborators, and professional office in which the work was completed or academic course and instructor for which the work was completed, where appropriate. The maximum file size is 30MB.
g) A written statement of interest (500 words maximum). you should
   i. describe why you want to attend the Master of Architecture Programme at HKU and identify specific aspects of the programme or the context of Hong Kong that have influenced your decision to apply;
   ii. describe an academic project or professional experience that has shaped the way you approach architecture or urbanism; and
   iii. identify a topic or architecture or urbanism that you would like to explore in greater depth in your graduate studies at HKU.

IMPORTANT: Applicants will only be requested to submit hard copies of supporting documents when they receive an admission offer. Therefore, please do not submit hard copies to the Faculty Office before you receive the offer.

II. Applicants have to appoint two referees, preferably one previous teacher and one professional employer, via the University’s online application system (https://aal.hku.hk/tpg/programme-list-2223). At least one academic reference is required.

Both of your referees will be requested to complete an online referee report and upload a reference letter via a separate email sent by the Faculty.

 It is crucial that applicants have to input accurate information into the University’s online application system. Any inaccurate information may cause email delivery failure and unavailable access to Faculty’s Submission System.

2. What are the basic requirements for admission?

To be eligible for admission to the programme, a candidate:

a) shall comply with the General Regulations and the Regulations for Taught Postgraduate Curricula;
b) shall possess a Bachelor of Arts in Architectural Studies degree of this University; or another equivalent qualification from another university or comparable institution accepted for this purpose;
c) for a candidate who is seeking admission on the basis of a qualification from a university or comparable institution outside Hong Kong of which the language of teaching and/or examination is not English, shall satisfy the University English language requirement applicable to high degrees as prescribed under General Regulation G2(b);
d) shall satisfy the examiners in qualifying examination if required.
e) A candidate should upload all the required supporting documents, in forms of soft-copy, to the Faculty’s MArch Application Documents Submission System before the application deadline

3. How can I fulfill the University’s English Language Proficiency requirement if the medium of instruction in my University is not English?
An applicant is required to obtain:
(a) a score of 550 or above (paper-based test) or 80 or above (internet-based test) in the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL; University TOEFL code: 9671) (non-home edition); or
(b) a minimum overall band of 6 with no subtest lower than 5.5 in the International English Language Testing System (IELTS)

Test scores obtained more than 2 years will not be accepted. Your test report will be considered valid if it is non-expired on the date you apply.

4. Is there any GPA requirement of my Bachelor degree?

There is no absolute GPA requirement set for the admission to the MArch programme. However, an applicant with good academic results will be more favorable to his/her application.

5. Is practical work experience essential for my application?

Practical work experience is not an essential requirement for admission. However, preference will be given to those applicants with professional experience that has shaped their practical and intellectual capacity in a positive manner.

6. Will my application be rejected if the supporting documents can’t be submitted before the application deadline?

Our MArch Application Documents Submission System will be closed at 12:00 noon (GMT+8), December 31, 2021. Therefore, you are strongly requested to submit your supporting documents before the deadline. Otherwise, the chance for admission will definitely be slim due to incomplete supporting documents submission.

7. Is there any interview required for the programme?

Starting from 2021 intake, in light of the COVID-19 situation, shortlisted applicants may be invited for the admission online interview via ZOOM between February to July. The detailed interview arrangement would be sent to shortlisted applicants via email.

8. What is the fee structure of the programme?

The exact composition fee for 2022-23 intake is yet to be confirmed. Below is the table for the estimated composition fee for 2022-23 intake:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>HK$84,550 inclusive of the caution money (HK$350)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Local Students:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Non-local Students:</td>
<td>HK$342,350 inclusive of the caution money (HK$350)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Remarks:
a) Non-local students are those that students holding –
   1. student visa / entry permit to study in Hong Kong;
   2. dependent visa / entry permit and were aged 18 years old or above when they were issued such visa / entry permit by the Immigration Department of the HKSAR; or
   3. visa under the Immigration Arrangements for Non-local Graduates (IANG), issued by the Director of Immigration of the Hong Kong Immigration Department.
b) The composition fee is pending on the UGC’s final decision and the University’s announcement.
c) The aforementioned composition fees are paid in 4 installments during 2 years of study.

9. Are there any scholarships available?

Those candidates who are successfully admitted to our MArch programme will have opportunities to be nominated to award the following scholarships/prizes:

E. Bruzzone Memorial Travelling Scholarship, Rev. Fr. Eric Lye Memorial Travelling Scholarship FoA Scholarships for Architecture Students HKIA Students Medal Jardine / Henry Lo Scholarship
P & T Travel Scholarship
Professor KC Lye Design Prizes in Architecture
Rev. Fr.E Bruzzone Memorial Travelling Scholarship
Szeto Wai Architecture Scholarship
The Nascence Scholarship
Wharf Architectural Design Internship
Wong Tung & Partners Scholarship

More details regarding the scholarship opportunities are available at http://www.scholarships.hku.hk/.

10. When do I need to pay for the admission deposit?
You are liable to pay for the admission deposit upon acceptance of conditional offer. Below is the table for the estimated admission deposit amounts for 2022-23 intake:

| | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Local Students:</td>
<td>HK$21,400 inclusive of the caution money (HK$350)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Non-local Students:</td>
<td>HK$85,850 inclusive of the caution money (HK$350)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Remarks:
- a) Non-local students are those who are holding –
  1. student visa / entry permit to study in Hong Kong;
  2. dependent visa / entry permit and were aged 18 years old or above when they were issued such visa / entry permit by the Immigration Department of the HKSAR; or
  3. visa under the Immigration Arrangements for Non-local Graduates (IANG), issued by the Director of Immigration of the Hong Kong Immigration Department.
- b) The composition fee is pending on the UGC’s final decision and the University’s announcement.

11. What is the difference between the 2-Year MArch and 3-Year MArch(Design) programmes?

The new Master of Architecture (Design) [3-Year MArch(Design)] Degree was launched in September 2019. The programme offers a chance for students from a diverse set of undergraduate degrees to study architecture.

The Master of Architecture [2-Year MArch] is a two-year UGC-funded full-time programme offered by the Department of Architecture. The 2-year MArch is offered to applicants who hold a Bachelor of Arts in Architectural Studies degree at this University; or another equivalent qualification from another university or comparable institution accepted for this purpose.

The programme structure, tuition fees, and curriculum aims of both programmes are different.

For more details, please visit: https://www.arch.hku.hk/programmes_/arch/

12. If I satisfy the requirements for the 2-Year MArch programme, could I still apply for the 3-Year MArch(Design) programme?

Please note the 3-Year MArch(Design) programme caters for those with less or no experience in architecture. You are advised to apply for the 2-Year MArch programme which more suits your skills and experience.

The admission committee will perform screening on your eligibility and may switch your application from 2-Year MArch to 3-Year MArch(Design), and vice versa.

13. I might have applied for a wrong programme. Could I switch my application from 2-Year MArch to 3-Year MArch(Design) / 3-Year MArch(Design) to 2-Year MArch?

Please note that programme switch is at the sole discretion of the admission committee.

The admission committee will recommend admission to the programme that best suits your qualification and experience. If you are recommended admission to a programme different than the one you applied for, you are required to pay the application fee and submit a formal application again via AAL, the registry.

14. I am interested in both the 2-Year MArch and 3-Year MArch(Design) programmes. May I apply both?

Differences between the 2-Year MArch and 3-Year MArch(Design) programmes

12. If I satisfy the requirements for the 2-Year MArch programme, could I still apply for the 3-Year MArch(Design) programme?

Please note the 3-Year MArch(Design) programme caters for those with less or no experience in architecture. You are advised to apply for the 2-Year MArch programme which more suits your skills and experience.

The admission committee will perform screening on your eligibility and may switch your application from 2-Year MArch to 3-Year MArch(Design), and vice versa.

13. I might have applied for a wrong programme. Could I switch my application from 2-Year MArch to 3-Year MArch(Design) / 3-Year MArch(Design) to 2-Year MArch?

Please note that programme switch is at the sole discretion of the admission committee.

The admission committee will recommend admission to the programme that best suits your qualification and experience. If you are recommended admission to a programme different than the one you applied for, you are required to pay the application fee and submit a formal application again via AAL, the registry.

14. I am interested in both the 2-Year MArch and 3-Year MArch(Design) programmes. May I apply both?
Please do not apply for both programmes. The admission committee will screen your application and recommend admission to the programme that best suits your qualification and experience.

Even if you applied both the 2-Year MArch and 3-Year MArch(Design) programme, we will only consider the ONE programme application that suits you most.

15. How do I know if my bachelor's degree is equivalent to the HKU-BAAS programme? Do you have a list of approved institutions?

Currently there is no finite list. Your eligibility to the 2-Year MArch programme will be further assessed by the admission committee.

19 October 2021